Supreme Assembly, IORG
Attn Mary Adeline Bradford, PSWA, Supreme Recorder
315 E. Carl Albert Parkway
McAlester, OK 74501

Dear Mary Adeline,

It is with great humility that I submit my letter of intent for the office of Supreme Faith along with Appendix I & II and a letter of recommendation from Luanne Walton, Supreme Inspector in Canada. Also enclosed is my $25.00 check for the filing fee.

I look forward to seeing everyone in July. Please do let me know if there is anything else that you need from me.

In Service,

Debora A. Redmond
Supreme Drill Leader
Supreme Inspector in Maine
International Order of the Rainbow for Girls

APPENDIX I
LETTER OF INTENT

I, Debora A. Redmond, do hereby declare my candidacy for the office of Supreme Faith for the House of Gold, Supreme Assembly, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls for the term 2024 to 2026. I further declare that I am willing to assume the duties and responsibilities of the office of Supreme Faith if elected by the House of Gold for the Supreme Assembly, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls for the aforementioned term.

My goals, objectives and values for Supreme Assembly through my candidacy are summarized as follows: to work with the Supreme Executive Board and the members of Supreme Assembly to create a mission / plan to bring Rainbow forward working with all jurisdictions to make Rainbow THE youth organization to belong to once again. To rejuvenate Rainbow and create the excitement for learning, leadership and service that started with Reverend Sexson so many years ago and has been perpetuated through the years but needs to be brought current by working together with long term planning by the leadership of all jurisdictions.

I feel that my background and experience in the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls, together with participation in professional and civic or community organizations, are such that I can perform the duties and responsibilities of the office of Supreme Faith for the aforementioned term.

To Supreme Assembly, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

I am writing in support of Debbie Redmond as she declares her intent to be considered for election as Supreme Faith.

I have known Debbie since I attended the 1985 Sessions of the Grand Assembly of Maine as GWA in Canada. She was the immediate PGWA at that Session and I enjoyed the opportunity to meet and work with her. Since then, I have attended many Maine Grand Assembly sessions and have always been warmly welcomed by Debbie and the other hard working Mainiacs. Through the 39 years of our friendship, I have always admired Debbie's ability to be calm in the face of crisis and to rise to whatever she was asked to do in Rainbow. She is respectful of her members and advisors. She seeks out others for ideas and suggestions. She is firm in her application of the rules and is fair in their application.

I particularly enjoyed serving with Debbie on the International Rainbow Renewal Task Force. It was wonderful to work with her to further the development of Rainbow in the 21st century.

Debbie's ability to mobilize and direct others were again obvious when, as Supreme Deputy, she planned and executed the multi-host Supreme Assembly Sessions in Rhode Island in 2016. The challenges inherent in hosting Supreme Assembly are always significant. To those, Debbie added five other jurisdictions as co-hosts. An organizational challenge to be sure, which she handled with grace and dignity.

It is my honour and privilege to recommend and support the candidacy of Debbie Redmond for the office of Supreme Faith.

In Rainbow Love and Service,

Luanne A. Walton
Supreme Parliamentarian and Supreme Inspector in Canada
